

Twice-A-Week Visitor

The Semi-Weekly Morning Light carries local, state and world news into thousands of rural homes in Navarro and surrounding counties twice each week. Every worthwhile item of news from every point is thoroughly covered.

Corsicana SEMI-WEEKLY Light.

Home of the Daily Sun and Semi-Weekly Morning Light

FULL LEASED WIRE ASSOCIATED PRESS SERVICE

CORSICANA, TEXAS, TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1936.

Fifty Years of Service

The Semi-Weekly Morning Light has been an outstanding progressive newspaper, working for the advancement of the rural communities of Navarro and adjacent counties for more than fifty years. Its success is bound up with the growth of Rural life.

VOL. L

SOLDIER BONUS BONDS IN MAIL

OVER BILLION AND HALF IN BABY BONDS DISTRIBUTED MONDAY

BUSINESS EXPECTED TO BE GREATLY BENEFITED BY DISTRIBUTION OF CASH

WASHINGTON, June 15. (P)—The bonus was paid today to veterans of the World War.

The fruit of a 17-year struggle over various forms of adjusted compensation, "baby" bonds worth almost $1,650,000,000 moved through the mail to some 3,000,000 ex-service men. When the work is completed 38,000,000 bonds will have been sent out.

Government exerts said that by the end of the week millions of dollars in cash would be in the hands of those men who seek immediately to swap the bonds for government checks—and the cash then will flow into trade channels.

At 45,000 postoffices workers prepared to accommodate those who are eager to get cash.

Special offices have been set up in many cities for certifying the bonds, after veterans have been identified by postal workers. Here, the veteran will trade his bonds for a temporary receipt. The bonds will then be sent to the nearest of 248 paying postoffices and checks will be written.

No veteran will need to leave his home town to cash his bonds, officials said. Each local postmaster has made arrangements to identify veterans, certify bonds, and forward them to paying offices where the checks will be written.

Business observers watched expectantly to see what effect the sudden burst of cash would have on general trade at a time when

See BONUS BONDS, Page 2

Transportation Co-Ordinator Is Stripped Power

WASHINGTON, June 15. (P)—The senate interstate commerce committee today approved a joint congressional resolution to continue Joseph E. Eastman as co-ordinator of transportation for one year. At the same time it voted to strip the office of regulatory power.

Approved by a vote of 6 to 7 the resolution would limit the authority of the co-ordinator to the making of studies in the transportation field.

It would provide for the assessment of a $2-a-mile annual tax on railroads.

Chairman Wheeler (D-Mont) declined to reveal how committee members voted.

Whether congress could act finally on the measure in time to keep Eastman's job from expiring tomorrow, as scheduled under existing law, remained uncertain.

Eastman was named co-ordinator of transportation by President Roosevelt after the emergency transportation act of 1933 was enacted.

He was given broad powers to investigate and coordinate the various transportation facilities of the country with a view to eliminating costly duplication and waste in facilities.

BLAZING PLANE LANDED; ONE DEAD

Sticking to blazing controls that followed a fire in their airplane, Pilot Ed Hesley and Eugene Schacher, guided the ship to a landing at Ferris, Texas, skidding it 150 yards and losing the motor. The wreck is shown above. Below: Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, tells Schacher, who later died, "that took guts my boy." Jones and Joe Toomey, W. P. Hobby, former Texas governor and his wife, passengers on the ship were only shaken. (Associated Press Photo)

PIRATE ATTACK ON AMERICAN HOSPITAL REPULSED BY POLICE

FOLLOWERS CHINESE CHIEF ATTEMPT TO RESCUE HIM MONDAY

AMOY, China, June 15. (P)—Pirates attacked the American hospital here tonight but were beaten off after a machine gun battle in which five men were killed.

Those slain were three pirates and two policemen.

The hospital itself was not damaged and none of the attaches was injured.

The institution belongs to the board of foreign missions of the Reformed Church of America with headquarters in New York.

Dr. C. H. Holloman of Chicago, superintendent of the hospital, and Miss Jean Neinheiss of Holland, Mich., chief nurse had been exacting the pirate attack.

For several days T. Chui Hop, chieftain of a notorious band of outlaws operating in the district by land and sea, has been a patient in the hospital.

He had been wounded in a gun battle with the police of Amoy.

A police guard was thrown around the building.

The attack was made tonight

See PIRATES, Page 8

NOTED INVENTOR AND ENGINEER SLAIN BY UNKNOWN ASSAILANT

MYSTERIOUS DISPUTE ON LAWN OF HIS HOME EARLY MONDAY ONLY CLUE

EAST ORANGE, N. J., June 15. (P)—McFarlan Moore, 67, electrical engineer and inventor, was found shot to death today following an early morning argument with an unknown man outside his Park Avenue home.

Police Chief C. N. Dell said two bullets from a .22 calibre revolver were fired into the man's head. He pointed to the fact that the second bullet had been fired at close range—where were powder marks and the head—in support of their theory that it was a case of murder.

First examination by police and medical examiners disclosed only one bullet but an autopsy by Chief Medical Examiner Harrison S. Martland showed that two had been fired.

Mrs. Mary W. Taber, a neighbor, heard the early morning argument between the two men as they stood in the rain. She as they stood in the rain. She

See MOORE, Page 8

SENATE COMMITTEE VOTES FAVORABLY NEW GUFFEY BILL

AMENDED VERSION STATUTE KILLED BY SUPREME COURT APPROVED

WASHINGTON, June 15. (P)—The senate interstate commerce committee voted 9 to 5 today to approve an amended version of the new Guffey-Vinson bill designed to stabilize the vast soft coal industry by price fixing.

The measure would re-enact the price fixing provisions of the original Guffey coal control act, which was invalidated by the supreme court. It omits labor provisions of the original statute.

Chairman Wheeler (D-Mont) said the most important change his committee made in the bill, revision of the so-called "complainant" feature to provide for and outright excise tax of one and one-half per cent on all soft coal, plus a 13 1/2 per cent tax on all coal in interstate commerce or directly affecting interstate commerce. Producers who comply with the act would be entitled to a rebate of the 13 1/2 per cent levy.

As first drawn, the bill provided for a flat tax of 15 per cent on the sale price of all soft coal at the mine, with a drawback of 90 per cent for producers who signed the code.

The governor and Mrs. Landon enjoyed a typical Sunday, at church and at home. His new role was reflected, however, in a larger number of handshakers and well-wishers, and in the pastor's specific mention of the "great honor shared by all of us in the selection of the governor of Kansas."

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers. He told the senate committee at hearings Saturday that, if the bill were not passed and wage cutting ensued, the miners were prepared to shut down the industry.

Prove your identity and sign the space on the reverse side of the bonds.

Get a receipt upon your surender of the bonds.

Then a United States treasurer's check for the amount due will arrive to you by mail.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN BURNED TO DEATH IN HIGHWAY CRASH

ANOTHER INJURED; COUPE AND TWO TRUCKS DESTROYED BY FIRE

The charred body of an unidentified hitch-hiker lies in a local morgue and another man is in a hospital as a result of a three-way collision between a small coupe and two oil trucks on Highway 31 one and one-half miles east of Corsicana Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock.

An explosion followed the collision, igniting the cargoes of gasoline and enveloping the automobile and trucks which were destroyed. One of the trucks sped for some distance and the driver leaped to safety, it plunged over the guardrails of the embankment at Post Oak creek, ran down the embankment, and turned over, where it burned.

Smotherman Injured.

Boyd Smotherman of Powell, about 40, in P. and S. Hospital with a broken left leg, severe head injuries and minor burns. His injuries are not thought to be critical.

James McCullough and J. W. Tanner, both of Hillsboro, drivers of the oil trucks, escaped injuries. The trucks are reported to belong to D. N. Ballard of Hillsboro.

The unidentified man was riding with Smotherman at the time of the accident. Smotherman had given him a lift near Corsicana but had not learned his companion's name but had been told by the victim that he resided in Austin. The hitch-hiker was rushed to the Corsicana Hospital and Clinic where he died shortly later. All of his clothing and all

See ACCIDENT, Page 7

ITALY FEELS SURE SANCTIONS WILL BE WITHDRAWN SOON

REGARDLESS OF LEAGUE ACTION OPPOSITION EXPECTED GRADUALLY CRUMBLE

By ANDRUE BERDING Associated Press Foreign Staff.

ROME, June 15. (P)—Italy expects time to work in her favor in prospective sanctions discussions, high Fascist sources said today.

Premier Mussolini's nation, which Thursday begins its eighth month under the war penalties, was declared by economists to be as strong now as before the League of Nations condemned her aggression in East Africa.

Fascist circles expressed belief the sanctionists would crumble, regardless of what action the league council and assembly decide upon at Geneva late this month.

Time will bring not only a factual acceptance of the new empire, they declared, but also a break in the sanctionist walls until Italian commerce resumes its normal activities.

Diplomatic and economic Fascist sources listed seven developments which the application of war penalties has brought to Rome. They were:

1. Loss of some foreign mar-

See SANCTION, Page 2

See ROOSEVELT, Page 2

PHILADELPHIA SETS STAGE FOR CONVENTION

Mrs. Philadelphia's all atwitter over the job of playing host to Democrats at their forthcoming national convention. Extensive plans of social and recreational nature have been outlined by the committee headed by the wife of Governor George Earle of Pennsylvania. Historical tours, parties and a tea in honor of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson are among the highlights of the program. One of the novel features of the convention program will be a number of attractive hostesses, garbed in typical Quaker dress, who will serve as guides and informants. In the above aerial view of Philadelphia the convention hall appears in the lower right hand corner.

ROOSEVELT MOVES BACK TO CAPITAL AFTER LONG TOUR

TAX-SNARLED CONGRESS IS AWAITING PRESIDENT AT END CENTENNIAL TRIP

WASHINGTON, June 15. (P)—President Roosevelt returned to the capital today, ending a 4,000 mile speaking trip through the west that began last Monday night and covered a dozen states.

Arriving at Union Station 15 minutes ahead of schedule, the President found three members of his official family waiting to greet him.

They were Secretary Morgenthau, Attorney General Cummings, and Postmaster General Farley.

The Chief Executive went directly to the White House to rest and check up on the congressional situation. There was some talk on Capitol Hill that he might confer again with house and senate committees seeking an agreement on the tax bill, but this was not confirmed.

ABOARD ROOSEVELT TRAIN EN ROUTE TO WASHINGTON, June 15. (P)—President Roosevelt traveled back to the nation's capital today leaving a trail of a dozen speeches in six Western states, several of them on subjects of which more is expected to be heard in the coming campaign.

Awaiting him at the end of his 4,000-mile journey was a tax-hunting congress seeking ways to agree and adjourn before the Democratic national convention, and the all-important task of framing his Philadelphia acceptance speech.

The Chief Executive went directly to the White House to rest and check up on the congressional situation. There was some talk on Capitol Hill that he might confer again with house and senate committees seeking an agreement on the tax bill, but this was not confirmed.

See PRIMARY, Page 8

REVENGE CAMPAIGN DECLARED SWEEPING OVER NAZI GERMANY

FOLLOWERS OF CAPTAIN ROEHM, "PURGE" VICTIM, SPREADS TERRORISM

PARIS, June 15. (P)—Vengeful terrorism by followers of Captain Ernst Roehm was reported sweeping Nazi Germany today.

The Berlin correspondent of the newspaper Paris-Soir said a campaign of murder and threats against high officials was being conducted by brownshirt adherents of Captain Roehm, slain in the Nazi "blood purge" of June 1934.

The dispatch reported formation of a "Roehm Rache" (Revenge Roehm) organization which has sent warnings to even Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler.

The bodies of members of the SS (Schutzstaffel) and SA (Storm Troops) have been found in isolated spots with the avenging "RR" initials scrawled on them.

(Nazi officials derided the report, declaring any threat by the chancellor was "nonsense."

A spokesman for the propaganda ministry denied the existence of the "Roehm" organization and added "there never will be any."

The source of the correspondent's dispatch, the spokesman said, "was a book called 'I Can No Longer Keep Still'" published in Switzerland by a German immigrant.

Twenty thousand of Roehm's followers swore to avenge their leader's death when he was shot in the "purge," the correspondent asserted, and this pledge is being carried to culmination by the "RR."

Blood-Curdling Scene.

Another car, occupied by Biggs and Bone, picked up the trio and all drove to the Biggs-Bone home. While a radio was turned on full blast to drown out all screams and moans, a blood-curdling scene followed.

Jenkins laid his arm on two blocks of wood and Biggs struck it in the middle with a rolling pin, fracturing the bone. Moving swiftly about his business, Biggs

OVER 3-QUARTERS MILLION DOLLARS ARE DUE VETERANS

ALL DETAILS PERFECTED FOR DISTRIBUTION OF BONUS BONDS HERE

Considerably more than three-quarters of a million dollars in cash, or its equivalent in United States bonds "baby" bonds, will be turned loose in Navarro county when the processes necessary for World War veterans to secure their bonds have been completed, according to a conservative survey made today by the Daily Sun.

The best available figures indicate a total of $819,200.

According to figures compiled from several sources, where applications for the bonus bonds were made out in February, 1,600 Navarro county veterans applied for their bonuses, and the average amount of each was conservatively estimated at $512.

Indications were that about 35 per cent of the veterans would cash their bonds as soon as possible, and the remaining 65 per cent would either hold them until their maturity in 1945, or cash the bonds of $50 denomination as they might be needed between now and the date of maturity, keeping all the bonds they possibly could to draw interest as an investment.

Assisted Veterans.

When the machinery was put into motion to secure the applications, two agencies were set up to assist the veterans in making out the proper applications. One was the Robinson-Liggins Post No. 22, American Legion, and the other was the Navarro county chapter, American Red Cross.

Today H. G. Gorrod of the American Legion reported that he and his aides had handled 1,270 applications and Mrs. R. B. Mitchell, executive secretary of the Red Cross, reported she had filled out 238 applications.

Other persons permitted to assist the veterans in filling out applications were any notary public and the postman. It is conservatively estimated that 32 applications were filled out through the assistance of these persons.

About 236 members of the local CCC camp, all veterans, added to the number of bonds that will be cleared through the Corsicana postoffice.

Average Around $512.

Carbon copies of 20 applications were selected at random today, and

See LOCAL BONUS, Page

ALLRED FORMALLY OPENS CAMPAIGN IN WAXAHACHIE JUNE 30

FOUR OTHER GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATES HAVE BEEN ACTIVE FOR SOME TIME

AUSTIN, June 15.—(P)—Gov. James V. Allred announced today he would formally open his campaign for re-election with an address at Waxahachie on the night of June 30.

He will close at Wichita Falls, his home, the night of July 24, preceding the election next day.

"I intend to give an accounting of my stewardship after the national Democratic convention at Philadelphia," he said.

At Philadelphia the governor will place the name of Vice President John M. Garner in nomination for re-election. He is a delegate at large from Texas.

Other candidates for the governorship have been active for several weeks. They are Senator Ross Sandford of Belton, R. W. Fischer of Tyler, Tom F. Hunter of Wichita Falls and F. Pierce Brooks of Dallas.

Lists for candidates in the primary July 25 were closed Saturday, the last day county office seekers could file for places on the ballot. The deadline for state offices was June 1.

John O. Douglas, whose filing for attorney general was rejected by the state Democratic executive committee, said at his Houston home that he was filing a mandamus petition in the supreme court in an effort to get his name on the ticket.

LOCAL BONUS

(Continued From Page One) totaled the total was $20,000 for the original value of the bonds. Some of the veterans had cashed half of the bonds previously. Half of the face value was taken, and averaged, which showed an average of $512 per veteran.

The largest amount was $1,885 and the smallest noted was $125. The bonds are printed in $50 denominations, and any difference between $50 and the odd amount of the bond will be given the veteran in cash.

According to information compiled in the national survey by the American Legion, at the time the bonus bill was enacted it was indicated veterans would spend their bonus somewhat along these lines:

Payment of old debts, 31 1/4 per cent.

Homes and home life expenses, 22 1/2 per cent.

Business and investments, 7 1/2 per cent.

Family clothing, 7 per cent.

Motor cars and machinery, 8 1/2 per cent.

Insurance, education, savings accounts and miscellaneous, 12 1/2 per cent.

Personal Identification.

Members and officials of the Johnson-Wiggins post of the American Legion will be at the postoffice this afternoon and evening to assist in the personal identification of veterans calling for their bonds.

Extensive preparations are being made by the Corsicana post office to handle the distribution of bonds.

According to a statement today by Postmaster A. A. Allison, there have been received some 600 or 700 series of bonds for as many ex-service men.

Notice to each recipient has been mailed to his address and to bring that notice to the registry windows of the postoffice this evening. The windows will open at 6 o'clock Monday afternoon and will continue into the night as may be found necessary to accommodate those desiring delivery today.

Others will be delivered as the ex-service men call for them.

How to Cash Bonds.

Veterans going to surrender and cash their bonds can do so beginning Tuesday, June 16, in the civil service room in the post-office basement, where clerks will be available to handle the work.

After proper personal certification of the bonds has been made, the surrendered bonds will be sent to the Dallas postmaster by local postal employees. The Dallas postmaster will mail the checks directly to the veterans and they may cash them at banks.

According to Postmaster Allison, any ex-service man not known by those at the registry windows should bring with him some one known by the clerks to identify him.

"Otherwise the bonds cannot be delivered to him," the postmaster pointed out.

No other plan of identification other than personal can be accepted under postoffice rules sent out by the department, which the clerks are not permitted to vary," Postmaster Allison declared.

When the pressure of delivery is over, postoffice officials will arrange to receive bonds back from those who desire to get the cash on the bonds, which will likely be within a few days or at once.

"We are pleased to serve the ex-service men and to do it expeditiously, but it is necessary to have their co-operation in order to get the most satisfactory results, and we will thank the men for the same spirit of helpfulness they have always shown," Postmaster Allison stated.

RACKET

(Continued From Page One)

Funeral services for Mrs. J. L. Vinson, aged 83 years, former resident of Corsicana, who died in Fort Worth Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock were held Sunday afternoon from the Dawson Methodist church with burial in the Dawson cemetery.

Mrs. Vinson resided in Corsicana about 15 years ago. She was born in Mississippi, but had resided in Texas for more than 60 years.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. H. Dawson, Fort Worth, and Mrs. J. E. Ponder, Corsicana; two sisters, Mrs. Betty Wilts, Dawson, and Mrs. Jack Tarkersley, Mississippi; six grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and a niece, Mrs. K. L. McEwain, Corsicana.

MAKE THIS MODEL AT HOME THE CORSICANA DAILY SUN DAILY PATTERN

FOR ACTIVE SPORTS OR
"SPECTATING" YOU'LL WANT
THIS GAY SHIRTMAKER

Pattern 2771

by Chic Adams

AA
2771

CHEAPER PRICES TO CONSUMERS ON BEEF SEEN FROM DECLINE

NOW SCRAPING THE LOWEST LEVELS SINCE GOVERNMENT STOPPED PURCHASES

CHICAGO, June 15.—(P)—Indicating cheaper beef prices to consumers, live cattle values today were scraping the lowest levels since the government stopped its drought relief purchasing more than a year ago.

Cattle broke 25 to 35 cents a hundredweight last week, continuing the steady decline in the steer price structure which has been under way, almost without interruption, since January. Choice and prime steer prices were the lowest since December, 1934.

Heavy receipts at major markets and the sluggish consumer demand were factors contributing to the downward trend. Lower steer values caused the liquidation of hogs because some farmers, livestock authorities said, showed no desire to feed relatively high priced hogs to $7 and $8 steers.

The general level of wholesale beef prices, which were paralleled by retail prices, was the lowest of the season, market authorities here said.

The huge amount of dressed beef in storage was relieved partly in May but until it supplied were the heaviest for the day in six years, with the exception of 1934.

The bulk of choice and prime steers sold here between $8 and $9 compared with an average weekly price one week in May last year of $14.54, the peak since 1930. The average price of beef cattle here May was $7.85, or $3.15 lower than last year.

Address orders to the Daily Sun Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York, N. Y.

R. L. Wheelock Host For Annual Barbecue Party

Several hundred Navarro countians and visitors, including high ranking officials of oil companies, state officials and bankers from many sections of Texas enjoyed the latest frocks, suits, blouses, beach and vacation clothes; bridal outfits. Lovely clothes for children too. Smart styles for stout. And a full picture-story of summer fabrics and accessories. Book Fifteen Cents. Pattern Fifteen Cents. Twenty-five cents for both, when ordered direct.

Address orders to the Daily Sun Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York, N. Y.

Elected President Mexia Chamber Of Commerce for Year

C. A. CHAMBERS

MEXIA, June 15.—(Spl)—Forty newly elected directors of the Mexia Chamber of Commerce have selected Clifford A. Chambers, formerly chairman of the highway committee, as president, succeeding Dr. M. M. Brown, who held the post for two years. Mr. Chambers, general manager of the Munger Cotton Oil Company, has long been active in civic affairs. He is also a trustee of the Mexia school district.

Other officers include John G. Phillips, vice-president, and Don S. Caldwell, treasurer. Jake Stubbs was re-elected secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

ROOSEVELT

(Continued From Page One) and dedications, the chief executive hoped to go to New Haven, Conn., for the Harvard-Yale boat race next Friday.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr. is a student and sub-varsity oarsman at Harvard, his father's university.

The president terminated his speaking tour yesterday morning at Vincennes, Ind., where he dedicated a memorial to George Rogers Clark, savior of the Northwest in the revolutionary war, with a speech stressing freedom of religion, a re-arming against "new devices of crime and cupidity," and conservation of natural resources.

Later in the day he went on a brief visit to Lincoln's birthplace at nearby Hodgenville.

At 10:30 a.m. the president issued a formal statement saying he had gone to the shrine "individually as one of many millions of Americans whose lives have been influenced for the good by Abraham Lincoln."

The out-of-town scores of well-known visitors were headed by R. L. Blaffer, Houston, president of the Humble Oil and Refining Company; John R. Suman, vice-president of the Humble Company; Tucker Royal, chairman of the board of the First National Bank of Dallas, formerly of Palestine; Colonel E. O. Thompson, Austin, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission; Charles Roesser, Fort Worth, president of the Independent Petroleum Association; W. A. Sniffen, Dallas, vice-president of the Magnolia Petroleum company; Gordon Fletcher, managing editor, Austin-American; Allen Peden, oil editor, The Houston Post, and many others.

SICK AND CONVALESCENT

Mrs. S. D. Ramsey, 604 South Fifteenth street, fell several days ago and broke her right arm. She is reported doing as well as could be expected.

Roscoe Smith, 16 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith of the Army community, was taken suddenly ill while in Corsicana Saturday afternoon and was rushed to the P. and S. Hospital in a Corley ambulance. The child was taken home after treatment.

Isadore Goldberg, who underwent an operation for appendicitis recently at the Corsicana Hospital and Clinic, was reported to be resting nicely Monday afternoon.

SANCTIONS

(Continued From Page One) which may or may not be regained later.

2. A tremendous effort to develop Italian raw materials and discover synthetic substitutes for commodities cut off by sanctions.

3. Transformation of the nature of her imports, eliminating luxuries almost entirely from the list and concentrating on necessary and available raw material.

4. A startling decline in both exports and imports accompanied by a pronounced increase in the national trade deficit.

5. An appreciable drop in "invisible" exports such as tourist expenditures, steamship revenue and freight charges. This decrease was declared partly compensated by gifts from Italians living abroad.

6. Crippling or crushing of some small industries not engaged in manufacturing materials of war and dependent upon foreign trade. Economists said these losses were counterbalanced by increased business in other lines.

7. Progress in H. D. Luce's project to make Italy more independent preparatory for a possible European conflict for which the dictator said "the wheels of fate turn fast."

WARRANTY DEEDS

BOSTON, June 15.—(P)—The American says in a copyrighted story James Roosevelt, eldest son of the President, is ready to run for congress in the 9th Massachusetts district, now represented by Richard M. Russell of Cambridge.

Roosevelt and he had not seen the report and added "I have no comment to make on anything political whatsoever. My activities in Boston are purely business."

BOSTON, June 15.—(P)—The American says in a copyrighted story James Roosevelt, eldest son of the President, is ready to run for congress in the 9th Massachusetts district, now represented by Richard M. Russell of Cambridge.

Roosevelt and he had not seen the report and added "I have no comment to make on anything political whatsoever. My activities in Boston are purely business."

Marriage Licenses

Emery Alexander and Mattie Mae Polk.

Weeks DuBose and Anne Eastwood.

Justice Court

Two were fined on drunkenness charges during the week end in the court of Judge M. Bryant.

The primary is set for September.

Russell has not indicated any intention of retiring from the seat he won from the veteran Republican congressman, Robert Luce two years ago.

BONUS BONDS

(Continued From Page One) business normally hits a downswing.

President Roosevelt has urged co-operation in the case of federal checks in order that the flow of cash into trade may start "without unnecessary delay."

Hoover Loan Corporation officials predicted bonus distribution would hasten payment of loans on homes.

Veterans' retention of the bonds, which draw interest at the rate of 3 per cent, has been urged by General Frank T. Hines, veterans' administrator, "if there is no urgent condition which requires that the bonds be cashed."

K. of P. Notice

Corsicana Lodge No. 6, Knights of Pythias will confer the rank of Knight on the sons of members Tuesday, the 16th, at 8 o'clock.

All members urged to be present. Visiting nights cordially invited.

JULIUS C. JACOBS, C. C.

C. B. HALEY, K. R. & S.

Bewley's Blue Ribbon Cream Meal

Fresh ground, undegummed. Just a few hours from the mill to you. No chance for bitter oils to make appearance. Try a sack of Blue Ribbon Cream Meal, today, and be convinced.

At Your Grocer—Distributed By HALE FLOUR AND FEED CO.

Dress Up

For Centennial year by repainting and repainting. You will appreciate the improved appearance of your home. Let us talk over your painting and papering problems with you.

A. W. LEVERMANN AND SON

CONGRESS HOPING FOR ADJOURNMENT BY END PRESENT WEEK

HOUSE AND SENATE LEADERS STRIVING TO END 74TH CONGRESS SATURDAY

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(P)—Amid expressions of hope, but doubt for Saturday night, adjournment, congress assembled today after a week's respite to tackle anew its knotty legislative problems.

House and senate leaders strove to end the 74th congress before the Democratic national convention next week, but there were several barriers to be hurdled.

One of the most stubborn obstacles is the state-born tax bill on which conferees worked throughout last week with little material progress toward compromise.

Heavy receipts at major markets and the sluggish consumer demand were factors contributing to the downward trend.

Lower steer values, the liquidation of hogs because some farmers, livestock authorities said, showed no desire to feed relatively high priced hogs to $7 and $8 steers.

The general level of wholesale beef prices, which were paralleled by retail prices, was the lowest of the season, market authorities here said.

The huge amount of dressed beef in storage was relieved partly in May but until it supplied were the heaviest for the day in six years, with the exception of 1934.

The bulk of choice and prime steers sold here between $8 and $9 compared with an average weekly price one week in May last year of $14.54, the peak since 1930. The average price of beef cattle here May was $7.85, or $3.15 lower than last year.

ROOSEVELT

(Continued From Page One) and dedications, the chief executive hoped to go to New Haven, Conn., for the Harvard-Yale boat race next Friday.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr. is a student and sub-varsity oarsman at Harvard, his father's university.

The president terminated his speaking tour yesterday morning at Vincennes, Ind., where he dedicated a memorial to George Rogers Clark, savior of the Northwest in the revolutionary war, with a speech stressing freedom of religion, a re-arming against "new devices of crime and cupidity," and conservation of natural resources.

Later in the day he went on a brief visit to Lincoln's birthplace at nearby Hodgenville.

At 10:30 a.m. the president issued a formal statement saying he had gone to the shrine "individually as one of many millions of Americans whose lives have been influenced for the good by Abraham Lincoln."</p

PROMINENT TEXANS HAD NARROW ESCAPE IN PLANE ACCIDENT

CO-PILOT OF PLANE THAT BURNED LATE FRIDAY DIED OF INJURIES

DALLAS, June 13.—(P)—Eugene Schacher of Houston, co-pilot of the plane which crashed with Jesse Jones, RFC chairman, and four others yesterday, died of his injuries at 1:50 p.m.

Jones and former Governor and Mrs. W. P. Hobby, also passengers in the plane which caught fire and was brought to a rough landing near Ferris, 20 miles south of Dallas, credited Schacher and Pilot Ed Hefley of Shreveport with saving their lives.

Physicians had not indicated they had considered Schacher's burns critical, although they had said he was a "very sick man."

Death came to the co-pilot less than three hours after Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Hobby had visited his sick room to wish him luck and thank him again for saving their lives.

The party was en route from Dallas to Houston at the time of the accident.

DALLAS, June 13.—(P)—Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and former Governor and Mrs. W. P. Hobby, who miraculously escaped serious injury in a flaming plane crash yesterday, planned to leave at noon today for Houston in a private railroad car.

Mrs. Hobby, who remained at a hospital last night with her husband, the former governor, was "stiff and sore," but otherwise in fine condition. She said she felt no ill effects from the rough landing.

Mr. Jones, whose blood bespattered shirt gave evidence of his aid in pulling Pilot Ed Hefley of Shreveport and Co-Pilot Eugene Schacher of Houston from the flaming front compartment, nursed a bruised chest.

Dr. A. R. Thomasson said Pilot Hefley was feeling fine despite first and second degree burns on the hands, feet and knees and a head cut.

Schacher, Dr. Thomasson said, was a "very sick man," and would remain in that condition for several days. He said there was no doubt, however, of his ultimate recovery.

Jones planned to visit the suffering pilot in the hospital prior to his departure. The RFC head credited them with saving the lives of the entire party after a leaking gas line caused the ship to burst into flames at an altitude of 7,000 feet.

The ship, which took off from Dallas after Jones had delivered a dedicatory speech at the unveiling of a statue to Confederate Gen. Robert E. Lee here.

Joe Toomey, Jones' secretary, also was a passenger.

MAY CONSUMPTION COTTON HOLDS OVER SAME PERIOD 1935

SLIGHT DECREASE IS SHOWN IN COMPARISON TO APRIL FIGURES

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(P)—Cotton consumed during May was reported today by the census bureau to have totaled 530,793 bales of lint and 64,760 of linters, compared with 576,762 and 61,450 during April this year and 470,412 and 64,583 during May last year.

Cotton on hand May 31 was reported as follows:

In consuming establishments 1,060,077 bales of lint and 239,566 of linters, compared with 1,18,413 and 250,061 on April 30 this year, and 97,734 and 231,376 on May 31 last year.

Exports for May totaled 351,734 bales, compared with 12,829 for April this year and 10,423 for May last year.

Exports for May totaled 351,734 bales, compared with 12,829 for April this year and 10,423 for May last year.

Exports for May totaled 351,734 bales, compared with 12,829 for April this year and 10,423 for May last year.

Imports for May totaled 19,981 bales, compared with 12,629 for April this year and 10,423 for May last year.

Imports for May totaled 19,981 bales, compared with 12,629 for April this year and 10,423 for May last year.

Contracts for 191 bombing planes were awarded for 191

Bombing Planes

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(P)—Contracts for 191 bombing planes, involving an expenditure of several million dollars, were awarded by the navy today to three aircraft manufacturers.

An order for 83 scouting type bombers went to the Curtis Airplane and Motor Company of Buffalo, New York.

Two orders, each for 54 of the "bomber" type, were given to the Chance Vought division of United Aircraft Corporation of East Hartford, Conn., and the Northrop Corporation of Inglewood, Calif.

The navy department said the total amount involved in the purchases had not yet been computed exactly.

The navy's last purchase of bombers, however, averaged about $31,000 apiece, and on this basis the three new contracts would amount to a total of more than $5,000,000.

Grand Jury Makes Final Report For Fairfield Court

FAIRFIELD, June 13.—(SPL)—The grand jury in its final report to the Seventy-seventh district court reported examination of 62 witnesses, investigation of 41 cases of the grade of felony, and returned 29 true bills of indictment. They examined the jail and found it in a clean and sanitary condition.

They thanked J. R. Sessions, sheriff, and his deputies, for their assistance and co-operation and for their diligent efforts in enforcing the law in Fairfield.

They also thanked Bowles, Bond county attorney, and R. W. Willford, for their work and assistance in helping to determine the true facts in each case presented.

Not Braniff Plane.

DALLAS, June 13.—(P)—The airplane which burned yesterday after a power dive of several thousand feet by the heroic pilots saved the life of Jesse H. Jones, Reconstruction Finance Corporation chairman, was a single-engine Vultee owned by the United Gas Company.

First reports from Ferris, near which the airplane settled, was that the ship was a Braniff liner and carried a stewardess. The report came from a hardware dealer in Ferris who apparently mistook Mrs. W. P. Hobby, wife of the former governor, and published in the Houston Post for a stewardess. Gov. Hobby received a bump over his eye and Mrs. Hobby was uninjured.

The disaster occurred on the route of the Braniff line to Houston.

One of the regular Braniff line planes flew over the burning private plane.

The Braniff line was not involved in the accident.

Ancient Law Is Upheld In Case Georgia Negro

OUTLOOK GOOD FOR WARM CAMPAIGN IN FREESTONE COUNTY

CANDIDATES NUMEROUS AND MOST OF THEM HAVE PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

By ROBERT TULEY.

ATLANTA, June 13.—(P)—The Georgia supreme court upheld today an ancient anti-insurrection statute under which Angelo Herndon, young negro Communist, was sentenced to 18-20 years on the chain gang.

A ruling of Superior Judge Hugh M. Dorsey of Fulton (Atlanta) county that the statute was too vague to be enforced was reversed.

Herndon, whom liberal political organizations have championed since his arrest in 1932, faces the prospect of either serving his term or carrying the fight to the supreme court of the United States.

He is in New York, where recently he has made liberal speeches. He is free on $7,000 bond furnished by the International Labor Defense. He has never felt the shackles of the chain gang as his case has been on appeal since he was first convicted.

Herndon, a Cincinnati negro, was convicted of an "attempt" to incite resurrection under a state statute passed by the Georgia legislature in 1871.

The original insurrection act passed in 1866, provided for the death penalty, "or, if the jury recommended to mercy," a prison sentence of five to 20 years.

Insurrection was defined as "any combined resistance to lawful authority of the state with intent to the denial hereof when it is manifested by acts of violence."

The Georgia court's decision was unanimous.

Charges against Herndon developed from the finding of Communist literature in his room. Among other things, the literature advocated establishment of a "Black Bell Republic" in sections of Southern states from Texas to Virginia.

In the race for representativeness to fill the place now occupied by H. E. Steward, who is not offering for re-election, the voter must select the name of Rufus I. Baty, making his third race; Bond, at present county attorney; J. P. Stubbs, formerly precinct chairman at Wortham, and Frank Johnson, B. R. I. engineer of Teague, comprise the slate. Each of the four is expectant of a heavy vote, and naturally disagree on who will lead the ticket.

County Judge A. H. Benbrook, making the race for re-election, has as opponent J. G. Anderson, for many years county chairman of the Democratic executive committee.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The county attorney's race finds two young lawyers each making his first race for county office. Enron Speed of Teague and R. W. Willford of Wortham. Both have become familiar figures in county courtrooms, and the race promises to be stubbornly contested.

Opposition for Sheriff.

Sheriff J. R. Sessions will find his re-election campaign opposed by at least two others desirous of the position as head of the county's enforcement division, W. E. Malnor of Teague and Jim Wesson of Wortham. This trio will be the principals in the race.

The

Corsicana Semi-Weekly

JUST FOLKS

(Copyright, 1935, Edgar A. Guest.)

Associated Press Licensed Wire Service.

PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

WORTHAM & MARTIN

Mr. A. Wortham, Lowry Martin

Owners and Publishers of the

Daily Sun and Semi-Weekly Light

Sun-Light Building 100 S. Main Street

Lynde Wortham Boyce Martin

Entered in the Corsicana Post Office as second class matter.

Rates in Navarro County and the United States and foreign countries, and elsewhere: In advance, per $1.00; six months, 75c; three months, 50c.

NOTICE

To those who want their paper changed

from one address to another, please give us address as well as name, in care of our office, and we can give much better service.

Member of Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all

news credited to it or not otherwise credited to it, and to the use for publication of all news published herein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein

are also reserved.

CORSICANA, TEX., JUNE 16, 1936

LOCAL OPPORTUNITY.

There is less repetition of Horace Greeley's advice to young men, to "go west and grow up with the country." The West is no longer "frontier." It has grown up, and its own people have grown up with it, and it doesn't need settlers from the East any more than the East needs settlers from the West.

There has been a different regional trend in the last couple of decades. Southern people have been going north in large numbers, first laborers then others. It started with the war boom in industry and has continued, though slowed by the depression. Now southern public leaders are strongly urging their ambitious young men and women to remain there and grow up with the South, instead of migrating to northern and eastern cities.

There is plenty of southern land, they point out, much of which is fertile and the rest of which can be made so. There are ample business opportunities. Southern educational institutions today have high standards and efficiency. There are more openings of many sorts in the South than in some other areas.

It is true today in almost any section of the country that opportunity can be found at home, by those who look for it and are willing to work as hard there as they would in a new field.

SHIPS FOR SHOW
OR PROFIT

As the luxurious liner Queen Mary completed her maiden voyage amid noisy throngs of admiring Americans, there was much talk of wistfulness on the part of the welcomers. Americans are supposed to be embarrassed and chagrinned that they have no ships on the seas that even approach equality with the Normandie and Queen Mary in size, speed and luxury.

Probably now there will be a demand in Congress and elsewhere that the United States build at least one super-liner. No one will be interested in the fact that the Normandie and the Queen Mary cost more to run than they will ever bring in revenues.

It would be fine to have enough American ships to carry all the Americans who choose to travel abroad and go on world cruises. But do we want one or two huge, costly, unprofitable vessels just for show, or a larger number of medium-sized ships, comfortable, well-equipped, safe, and income-producing?

RABBIT FUR

When is a pest not a pest? Well, in the case of rabbits in Australia, it was when the fur of the pest became commercially valuable. The United States Consul at Sydney reports that rabbit skins valued at $3,750,000 have been sent from that one port to furriers in this country.

Australians, until recently, have had to erect rabbit-proof wire fences around every garden plot or cultivated area they didn't want invaded by this devourer of green, growing things. They are going to get even with the bunnies now, since so many different fashionable furs begin as rabbit skins.

An American traveler says you can't wear a straw hat in Europe or Asia. And no doubt they think you're funny if you chew a straw.

power for peace.

JUST FOLKS

(Copyright, 1935, Edgar A. Guest.)

Associated Press Licensed Wire Service.

PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

WORTHAM & MARTIN

Mr. A. Wortham, Lowry Martin

Owners and Publishers of the

Daily Sun and Semi-Weekly Light

Sun-Light Building 100 S. Main Street

Lynde Wortham Boyce Martin

Entered in the Corsicana Post Office as second class matter.

Rates in Navarro County and the United States and foreign countries, and elsewhere: In advance, per $1.00; six months, 75c; three months, 50c.

NOTICE

To those who want their paper changed

from one address to another, please give us address as well as name, in care of our office, and we can give much better service.

Member of Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all

news credited to it or not otherwise credited to it, and to the use for publication of all news published herein. All rights of re-

publication of special dispatches herein

are also reserved.

CORSICANA, TEX., JUNE 16, 1936

LOCAL OPPORTUNITY.

There is less repetition of Horace Greeley's advice to young men, to "go west and grow up with the country." The West is no longer "frontier." It has grown up, and its own people have grown up with it, and it doesn't need settlers from the East any more than the East needs settlers from the West.

There has been a different regional trend in the last couple of decades. Southern people have been going north in large numbers, first laborers then others. It started with the war boom in industry and has continued, though slowed by the depression. Now southern public leaders are strongly urging their ambitious young men and women to remain there and grow up with the South, instead of migrating to northern and eastern cities.

There is plenty of southern land, they point out, much of which is fertile and the rest of which can be made so. There are ample business opportunities. Southern educational institutions today have high standards and efficiency. There are more openings of many sorts in the South than in some other areas.

It is true today in almost any section of the country that opportunity can be found at home, by those who look for it and are willing to work as hard there as they would in a new field.

SHIPS FOR SHOW
OR PROFIT

As the luxurious liner Queen Mary completed her maiden voyage amid noisy throngs of admiring Americans, there was much talk of wistfulness on the part of the welcomers. Americans are supposed to be embarrassed and chagrinned that they have no ships on the seas that even approach equality with the Normandie and Queen Mary in size, speed and luxury.

Probably now there will be a demand in Congress and elsewhere that the United States build at least one super-liner. No one will be interested in the fact that the Normandie and the Queen Mary cost more to run than they will ever bring in revenues.

It would be fine to have enough American ships to carry all the Americans who choose to travel abroad and go on world cruises. But do we want one or two huge, costly, unprofitable vessels just for show, or a larger number of medium-sized ships, comfortable, well-equipped, safe, and income-producing?

TO AVOID WAR

Walter Lippmann says these conditions must be met if great and disastrous wars are to be avoided.

First, "the pacific nations of Europe must be well armed and resolute."

Second, "they must be united."

Third, "they must relieve the tension by opening channels of trade."

Fourth, "no one can feel secure again until responsible constitutional government replaces dictatorship."

LIGHT ON DARKNESS

All this sounds reasonable. But whether the "pacific nations of Europe" can meet the condition is doubtful. If they meet the first three, the fourth may still threaten them and the world. Every dictatorship is dangerous.

What can America do? Many Americans believe the first condition applies to us, as it does to free European nations like Britain and France. We are already arming above our normal peace standard. The second condition hardly applies to us. We can co-operate with well-intentioned European governments, but American opinion will not sanction any formal bond with them.

The third definitely applies to us, as to foreign powers. If we do our part to re-open the closed "channels of trade," that will help to relieve the tension. Normal international trade is simply to turn the light on

It is demonstrated again that the best remedy for anything un-American is simply to turn the light on power for peace.

Maybe what Europe needs is straw votes.

Landon And Knox Republican Ticket; Harmony Prevailed

By EDWARD J. DUFFY
Associated Press Staff Writer

CONVENTION HALL, CLEVELAND, June 12.—(P)—The republican convention nominated Col. Frank Knox of Illinois for the vice presidency today with the same unanimity that marked the nomination of Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas for the presidency last night.

From the start of the call of the states, the delegates went for him without a solitary dissent; cheered a telegram from Landon saying the "road led to victory in November;" and disbanded for the intense campaign already under way.

For a time a "draft Vandenberg" movement seemed in the making. But the Michigan senator, in a letter read to the convention, asked that his name not be considered. He said he could "serve more effectively on the floor of the senate during the next Landon administration."

Col. Knox had left the city evidently with a landslide for him from his mind. He indicated an expectation that Vandenberg would be nominated and accepted.

There were plain signs that some of the main Landon leaders were working for Vandenberg even after the convention met. But they finally joined the rush.

No other name was voted on.

Withdraw Names.
Governor Harry W. Nice of Maryland and former Ambassador Walter Edge of New Jersey took the rostrum, as did Knox and Vandenberg for Landon last night, to withdraw their names and call for a unanimous vote.

There was a brief demonstration for Knox when the official tally of 1,003 votes was announced. The inevitable hand blared, a few delegates paraded and the Landon cowbells rang.

Learning of his nomination in Michigan City, Knox said he was "profoundly grateful."

Now 62 and publisher of the Chicago Daily News, he has been on the warpath against the New Deal for months. He is "Riding a Rough Rider" in the Spanish-American war; worked for "Toddy" Roosevelt in the Bull Moose days, the same as the then youthful Landon. But their paths were not destined to cross until this later point in the 80-year history of Republicanism.

Delegates Released.
As did the rivals of Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas, last night Governor Harry W. Nice of Maryland and former Ambassador Walter Edge of New Jersey, released their delegates and took to the platform to advocate the popular choice.

The name of Arthur W. Little of New York was also withdrawn, leaving Knox the only name before the convention.

One of the deciding factors was a telegram sent the 90 New York votes said to favor Knox. Right up to the meeting of the session there was talk of drafting Vandenberg but he was adamant.

The sing-song of the roll call sounded like an echo of the procession of the states to the Kansas governor for the presidential nomination last night.

Michigan cast its 38 for Knox, although a previous announcement had said that state would go for Vandenberg.

Running Story Of Convention Friday

By EDWARD J. DUFFY,
Associated Press Staff Writer

CONVENTION HALL, Cleveland, June 12.—(P)—The republican convention divided today over a running mate for Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas in the presidential campaign, advocates of both Senator Vandenberg and Frank Knox working among the delegates.

John Hamilton, the Landon manager, sought to find out whether Senator Vandenberg of Michigan would accept if "drafted" but reports afterward were still highly confusing.

Repeatedly word spread over the floor that Vandenberg would accept and then that he would not.

His own state decided to put up another candidate, Governor Fitzgerald.

Colonel Frank Knox of Illinois had left the city, evidently believing Vandenberg would assent. In the confusion of doubt, a number of leaders worked for Knox himself on the floor. The New York delegation, as well as others, were split.

Late In Convening.
The convention was more than an hour late in convening and there was no telling when balloting could begin.

All stood for the invocation by Rabbi Louis Wolsey, of Philadelphia.

Hamilton was recognized, and roared cheers at once with a prediction of Landon's election.

He appealed for harmony in picking the vice-presidential nominee as prevailed last night, and indicated there would be no candidate for the vice-presidential nomination put forth by the Landon people at least until the end of the nominations.

"I hope we will pick a man here who will add to the ticket and will be able to serve as vice-president of the United States with distinction," he said.

"I ask unanimous consent, for that reason, that the state of Kansas be allowed to pass until the end of the roll call."

His request was granted. The roll call began with Alabama yielding to New Hampshire, and Governor H. Styles Bridges of that state at once took the rostrum to praise the platform as "aggressive and constructive."

Knox Is Nominated.
"On behalf of my state," he said, "I nominate for the vice-president of these United States, a distinguished citizen of Illinois—Colonel Frank Knox."

He praised the Chicago publisher, who long was prominent in New Hampshire affairs before settling in the midwest.

Amidst occasional applause, the governor reviewed the Knox record.

"I speak as a young republican and ask you to give us for second place on this ticket a man who has honor, courage, vision,

LEGISLATURE OF LOUISIANA MEETS IN DALLAS FRIDAY

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT EN- DORSED FOR RE-ELECTION AT OFFICIAL SESSION

DALLAS, June 12.—(P)—Louisiana's state legislature, in special session at the Texas Centennial Exposition today, endorsed President Roosevelt for re-election and urged the republican party to adjourn its convention so Roosevelt could be elected unanimously.

Gov. Richard W. Leche convened the Louisiana lawmakers immediately after the Chief Executive had spoken in the Cotton Bowl stadium on the exposition grounds.

Another joint resolution of the Louisiana legislature expressed gratitude of the state for the setting aside of a Louisiana Day at the Texas Centennial. It declared the Centennial was the greatest exposition ever held in the south and that the state itself is not only great in size but contains a great people.

The legislature set forth that, as in other national crises, when a great leader arose to save the people, Franklin D. Roosevelt was chosen to lead and save the nation during the recent crisis. It was resolved:

"We, the members of the house and senate of the State of Louisiana, endorse the national democratic administration and respectfully suggest to the other states of the union and their respective people to do likewise with the view that the Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt be not only the nominee for the presidency of the democratic party but that he be overwhelmingly re-elected, so that his great humane program of general uplift for America be continued."

He further resolved that we do hereby, in view of the nearly unanimous sentiment of the people, and in the interests of the national welfare and to save the unnecessary expense of a national campaign, call upon the republican party, now assembled in convention, endeavoring to obtain a platform and select a candidate, to adjourn and go home and abandon the vain and useless efforts to overcome the undoubtedly will of the people of the United States."

At the same time, the legislature voted to send copies of the resolutions to the President, the democratic national committee and "to our fellow Americans, still in the republican party, now meeting in Cleveland."

The legislature's action came as further evidence of the friendly relations existing between Louisiana state and national administrations following the bitter political attacks on the New Deal by the late Huey P. Long.

Reaffirming his administration's unqualified endorsement of the president, Governor Leche, speaking briefly at a luncheon given the chief executive by Centennial officials, said:

"At the luncheon, Governor Roosevelt, 'It gives me great deal of honor on behalf of the state of Louisiana to join with citizens of our neighboring state of Texas in celebrating 100 years of progress, and may I take the liberty on behalf of both Louisiana and Texas to extend to the Democracy of America an invitation to join with us in November in celebrating four years of progress under the stewardship of our distinguished guest, Franklin D. Roosevelt."

At the luncheon Governor Leche occupied a position four seats to the president's right, and Lt.-Gov. Earl K. Long, brother of the late senator, was seated at the speaker's table to the left of the executive.

Both Governor Leche and Lt. Gov. Long joined the 100 guests in enthusiastic acclaim as the president concluded his speech.

They later joined members of the Louisiana delegation for a tour of the exposition.

Do you want to buy something? Phone 163 for classified rates.

the letter at once saying "this is conclusive" and "I am convinced I can serve more effectively on the floor of the senate during the next Landon administration."

The effect was to increase the strength of Colonel Frank Knox of Illinois, for whom many of the party leaders had been working all morning.

A powerful sweep for him was evident and there were predictions of a first ballot nomination. A few other names were presented, but little attention was paid to the little known Virginia.

Many of the Vandenberg admirers refused to give up hope, but very strong delegations appeared certain for Knox of swing that way.

Knox Gets All Votes.
CONVENTION HALL, Cleveland, June 12.—(P)—The official total of the first and only ballot for vice-president was Knox 1003; others, none.

Convention Adjourns.

CONVENTION HALL, Cleveland, June 12.—(P)—The republican national convention adjourned sine die at 12:14 p. m. C. S. T. today.

Landon Thanks Convention.
CONVENTION HALL, Cleveland, June 12.—(P)—A telegram from Alf M. Landon, the presidential nominee today was read to the convention, in which Landon thanked the convention for its overwhelming endorsement of him.

To Go For Vandenberg.
CLEVELAND, June 12.—(P)—J. Russell Sprague, New York State chairman, today quoted John Hamilton, Landon manager, as saying "we're going to go for Vandenberg" for the republican vice presidential nomination.

Vandenberg himself could make no comment as delegates streamed to and from the convention hall to choose a running mate for Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas.

Both Sprague and a Landon leader said a poll taken during the night showed that two-thirds of the state delegations for Vandenberg.

But some Landon leaders said they were still unadvised as to whether Vandenberg would accept if drafted by the convention, or what would be done if refused.

Vandenberg Refuse Run.
CONVENTION HALL, Cleveland, June 12.—(P)—In the midst of a boom for his vice-presidential nomination, Senator Arthur Vandenberg, Michigan addressed a letter to the republican convention today, asking that his name be withdrawn.

Borah Reaches Capital.
WASHINGTON, June 12.—(P)—Senator Borah of Idaho who failed the republican presidential

Ruling of Court Indicates Huge State Recovery

AUSTIN, June 12.—(P)—Attorney General William McCraw said today that the judgment of the El Paso civil appeals court yesterday in a vacancy suit, if permitted to stand, would mean the greatest recovery in the history of the state for the public free school fund.

McCraw was advised that the court reversed and remanded with instructions the case of the State of Texas versus Standard Oil & Gas Company and others. Under this ruling the state would receive approximately $2,000,000 for oil already produced, the land in dispute and future royalties, the attorney general said.

The case involves title to approximately 300 acres of valuable oil lands in the heart of the Yates oil field in Pecos county.

The properties are situated between sections 101, 102, 103 and 104 of T. C. Ranch surveys on the north and O. C. Yates survey 34-1-2 on the south.

McCraw said the case was remanded with instructions to the state to take sumner work at the University of Texas.

Miss Vivian Terry, L. E. Peavy and P. D. Browne left Monday to take summer work at the University of Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kligman were in Tyler.

Raymond Kligman is working at Lon Morris College at Jacksonville, this week.

Miss Valerie Condrey is attending Emporia League assembly at Lone Morris this week.

Fred Hill, who has been undergoing treatment in a Corsicana clinic, is expected to return home today.

Judson Davis has returned home from the State University.

Miss Edwina Shumate of Kirven visited her sister, Miss Lois Shumate this week. She was accompanied home by Joy Verne Aultman.

Miss Etta Bell Owens is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wade Barnett in Oakwood.

J. W. Richards, Jr., Dr. W. C. Stout and Kelly Newell are spending the week with their aunt, Mrs. Joel Bonner at Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Buford Middleton of Denison, Riley Middleton and Miss Dennis Jones visited the Centennial Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Bonner attended the Centennial opening.

Miss June Proctor of Dallas and Miss Emily Shick of Teague are spending the week with their aunt, Mrs. Joel Bonner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore of Corsicana, Mr. and Mrs. John Dowdle and Mrs. Will Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Runnells of Coolidge and Mr. and Mrs. Nell Dill and Emma Grace of Jacksonville, spent the week end here with friends.

Joan Sloan of Rice is the guest of Ann Stewart this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Mitchell of Venues and Grady Mitchell of El Centro, Calif., visited Mr. and Mrs. Buck Robinson last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore of Corsicana, Mr. and Mrs. John Dowdle and Mrs. Will Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Runnells of Coolidge and Mr. and Mrs. Nell Dill and Emma Grace of Jacksonville, spent the week end here with friends.

Asked about his conversation with the President, Governor Leche smilingly and tersely remarked:

"We just exchanged greetings." A luncheon was spread for President and Mrs. Roosevelt, and Governor Leche and Lieutenant-Governor Earl K. Long at a hotel at noon.

Photographs Ruined.

DALLAS, June 12.—(P)—Curiously ruined the photographic plates of the Louisiana legislative delegation at the Texas Centennial Exposition as well as killing the provincial cat.

A messenger boy sent scouring with photographic plates of the delegation's arrival at the Texas Centennial Exposition for publication early Friday, became curious and decided to see what the plates contained. He pulled out the slides, exposing the plates, thereby ruining what otherwise would have been perfectly good photographs.

Funeral services for Frank Simpson, aged 68 years, formerly well known Navarro county banker, who died Friday noon with a heart attack, were held at Plainview Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Simpson was connected with the Texas old age assistance commission at the time of his death in Plainview Friday. He formerly was connected with the Federal Reserve Bank and for years was cashier of the Citizens National Bank at Bloomington, and later was president of the First National Bank at Dawson.

Surviving are his wife, Plainview; three sons, Frank Simpson, John T. Austin, Louis Simpson, Plainview, and Ray Simpson, Stanton; a daughter, Mrs. Bob Connor; four brothers, Zeme Simpson, Blooming Grove; Dick Simpson, Corsicana; George Simpson, Henrietta, and Tadd Simpson, West Texas; three daughters, Mrs. J. P. Williford, Malone, Mrs. Ed Sanders, Hillsboro, and Mrs. Eva McClusky, Austin, and other relatives.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. F. O. Thornton, and his children, Mrs. R. L. Williford and children of Mrs. C. A. Lovelace, and his wife, Mrs. C. A. Lovelace, who is ill.

Mrs. C. A. Lovelace, who is ill, was born in Crenshaw county, Ala., and died in 1929. She was buried in the Crenshaw county cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lovelace were married in 1929. They have three children: Mrs. C. A. Lovelace, Mrs. C. A. Lovelace, and Mrs. C. A. Lovelace.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. F. O. Thornton, and his children, Mrs. R. L. Williford and children of Mrs. C. A. Lovelace, and his wife, Mrs. C. A. Lovelace.

Funeral services for Simpson were arranged for Sunday afternoon.

GOVERNOR LECHE OF LOUISIANA CONFRS WITH ROOSEVELT

OFFICIALS OF NEIGHBOR STATE GUESTS CENTENNIAL IN DALLAS FRIDAY

By QUINCY EWING
Associated Press Writer

DALLAS, June 11.—(P)—Governor Richard W. Leche of Louisiana, surrounded by leaders of his state political organization which when headed by the late Senator Huey P. Long waged battle with President Roosevelt's administration, today renewed friendly personal acquaintance with the nation's chief executive.

After arriving in Dallas with nearly 1,000 Louisianians, including the legislature and nearly every elective and appointed state official aboard special trains, Governor Leche conferred with the president in the latter's private car, and then hurried out to the Texas Centennial grounds with his contingent to meet him.

Governor Leche and the President were honored visitors to the Centennial Exposition, and received acclaim as with separate police escorts, they sped through the city's streets, sirens screaming.

Governor Leche and the Louisianians arrived in Dallas first. The governors got in one of two special trains from Baton Rouge, and many others came on special train from New Orleans.

The governor and the legislature are situated between sections 101, 102, 103 and 104 of T. C. Ranch surveys on the north and O. C. Yates survey 34-1-2 on the south.

McCraw said the case was re-

BEAUTY CHATS

By EDNA KENT FORBES

All requests for beauty information desired by Edna Kent Forbes column must be accompanied by a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope (a.s.e.) and two cents in stamps to cover cost of printing and mailing. For the illustrated pamphlet, "BEAUTY," ten cents in stamp is fully deserved. Mail to Edna Kent Forbes in care of this paper.

USING THE SUMMER.

Miss Forbes suggests a way to use the hot summer months to improve your skin, and to make your face and your figure younger and healthier.

Plan this summer so that it is a long, gentle beauty treatment. You can make it so, with a little forethought. For instance, you can plan your diet, so your food corrects your weight, so it supplies your body with the calciums and other elements it needs to give you a perfect skin, and you can utilize the hot days for sunbathing. E. K. Forbes makes for health and beauty, and for perspiring away acids—indeed, there are countless ways to make yourself over during the June and July and August days.

Diet will go into tomorrow. Let me suggest today that you give yourself the finest skin treatment I know of for dry skin, for wrinkles, for a dozen other troubles due to an under-nourished complexion. Go to the drugstore and get about fifty cents' worth of odorless castor oil. When you are ready for your daily sun bath, wash the skin thoroughly with soap and hot water and then rub on a generous amount of castor oil. Put on dark smoked glasses and go lie in the sun; let the sun literally bake this oil into your skin. It not only helps you tan, and to a most lovely golden brown, but it supplies the skin with the oils that it takes up most easily. Fine lines disappear like magic after this treatment, and a summer spent doing this for half to one hour a day is as good as going off on a beauty farm.

Make your cooking less elaborate, if you keep house, and simplify your house work in every possible way so as to give yourself leisure for outdoor exercise and relaxation. I know one woman who puts on a bathing suit when she gets up in the morning, slips a dark house-dress over this, does her housework, eats an early salad for lunch, and lies for an hour in the sun afterward, her takes a shower and dresses. Mrs. H. F. A simple method of giving the facial muscles exercise is done by planting the finger tips into the temples, or, rather, just to the front of them, toward the eyes, then press gently, and begin to rotate all the muscles from these places. This will mean all the muscles of the cheeks, and each side of the mouth. These will be cared for particularly, but the muscles around the eyes and over the forehead will be getting a share in the exercise also, and as much too as they will need.

BEAUTY MAKING SUMMER

Edna Kent Forbes

and beauty, and for perspiring away acids—indeed, there are countless ways to make yourself over during the June and July and August days.

Diet will go into tomorrow. Let me suggest today that you give yourself the finest skin treatment I know of for dry skin, for wrinkles, for a dozen other troubles due to an under-nourished complexion. Go to the drugstore and get about fifty cents' worth of odorless castor oil. When you are ready for your daily sun bath, wash the skin thoroughly with soap and hot water and then rub on a generous amount of castor oil. Put on dark smoked glasses and go lie in the sun; let the sun literally bake this oil into your skin. It not only helps you tan, and to a most lovely golden brown, but it supplies the skin with the oils that it takes up most easily. Fine lines disappear like magic after this treatment, and a summer spent doing this for half to one hour a day is as good as going off on a beauty farm.

Make your cooking less elaborate, if you keep house, and simplify your house work in every possible way so as to give yourself leisure for outdoor exercise and relaxation. I know one woman who puts on a bathing suit when she gets up in the morning, slips a dark house-dress over this, does her housework, eats an early salad for lunch, and lies for an hour in the sun afterward, her

Do you want to buy something? Phone 163 for classified rates.

FUNNY FABLES

FAIRFIELD, June 13.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Parker and Miss Eleanor and Herbert, and G. A. Parker, Jr., attended the commencement exercises of the University of Texas in Austin Monday, where Mr. and Mrs. Parker's son, Edward G. Parker, received his degree of civil engineering. Edward held many responsible positions in the school. He was president of the American Society of Civil Engineers; member of Chi Acacia, Chi Epsilon, honorary engineering social fraternity.

Do you want to buy something? Phone 163 for classified rates.

OH, ER, OFFICER, IS IT ALL RIGHT IF I PARK HERE A WHILE?

JUST KIDS—FATSO TAKES THE CAKE

I GUESS I BETTER START SAYIN' GOOD-BYE TO PEOPLE, 'CAUSE WE'RE GOIN' HOME!

WELL, SINCE I COPIED BOLTON'S IRRESISTIBLE MUSTACHE AND HE SHAVED HIS OFF, THAT MAKES ME TOPS!

HA-HA—I CAN STILL RESIST YOUR CHARMES

WHY, MAC—THAT ADORABLE MUSTACHE MAKES ME WANT TO KISS YOU. I NEVER KISSED A MAN WITH A MUSTACHE—I'M SURE TILLIE WON'T MIND.

JUST A MINUTE

IF YOU'RE SO GA-GA ABOUT KISSING A MAN WITH A MUSTACHE, HERMAN WILL OBLIGE

TAH-HO-HO

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

© 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

AUTOMOBILE FOUND AT BOTTOM OF LAKE IN NEW MEXICO

SEARCHER FOR BODIES OF MISSING TOURISTS UNCOVERS ANOTHER MYSTERY

ROSWELL, N. M., June 15.—(P)—A mystery automobile, half sunken in silt and mud at the bottom of a 125-foot lake north of here, lent new impetus today to a search for the bodies of four Midwest tourists whose disappearance is still as enshrouded in darkness as on the day they were discovered missing more than a year ago.

State police, balked by darkness last night renewed efforts at removing the machine today. It was discovered yesterday by E. P. Lane, a deep-water diver.

Lane could not tell whether there were bodies in the car. It apparently had been in the lake about a year, he said.

The new aspect of the search brought from the E. J. House, Jr., of the state police the expression that possibly the car might contain the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heberer, Illinois tourists.

Last seen at Vaughn, N. M., May 2, 1935, their disappearance has threatened to become another of the state's unsolved mysteries.

PRIMARY

(Continued From Page One)
Under the budget passed, the three candidates for district judge will be assessed $75 each; the four for district clerk will pay $75 each; the five for county judge, $65; three for district attorney, $75; county clerk (unopposed) $150; three for sheriff, $75; three for assessor and collector of taxes, $75; six for county treasurer, $20; county surveyor, $1; county commissioners, $40 each; justices of the peace and commissioners ranging from $15 in Custeria to $5 and $3 in precincts.

These assessments must be paid not later than Saturday night. The candidates can pay County Chairman Crawford or deposit the amounts in the First National Bank of Corsicana.

A primary committee composed of B. W. George of Corsicana, W. A. Sims of Frost, Bob High of Blooming Grove, W. C. Cunningham of Franklin, and T. B. Upchurch of Eastland was appointed by Chairman Crawford to have charge of the primary election arrangements. This committee will meet next Monday, June 22.

W. T. Parker, former county chairman, and for years one of the leaders in Navarro county Democratic circles, was present, following a serious illness and recent operation.

Following is the order in which the names of the various candidates will appear on the Democratic primary ticket for the first primary election, July 25, after the draw conducted by the Navarro county executive committee.

For United States Senator:

Richard C. Bush of McLennan county.

Guy E. Fisher of San Augustine county.

J. Edward Glenn, of Bosque county.

Joe H. Eagle of Harris county.

Morris Sheppard of Bowie county.

Joseph H. Price of Tarrant county.

For Governor:

James V. Allred of Wichita county.

F. W. Fischer of Smith county.

P. Pierce Brooks of Dallas county.

Tom F. Hunter of Wichita county.

Roy Sanderford of Bell county.

For Lieutenant Governor:

Walter F. Wood of Harris county.

For Attorney General:

William McCraw of Dallas county.

For Chief Justice of the Supreme Court:

C. M. Cureton of Bosque county.

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court:

Richard Critz of Williamson county.

For Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals:

O. S. Lattimore of Travis county.

For State Railroad Commissioner:

Ernest O. Thompson of Potter county.

Carl C. Hardin of Erath county.

Frank S. Morris of Dallas county.

H. O. Johnson of Harris county.

Goodson Reiger of Harris county.

For State Comptroller of Public Accounts:

Walter Walton Covington of Travis county.

George H. Sheppard of Nolan county.

Sam Houston Terrell of McLennan county.

For Commissioner of The General Land Office:

John W. Hawkins of Lavaca county.

William H. McDonald of Eastland county.

For Treasurer of the State of Texas:

Garland Adair of Travis county.

Harry Hopkins of Tarrant county.

Charles Lockhart of Travis county.

For State Superintendent of Public Instruction:

A. A. Pat Bullock of Bexar county.

L. A. Woods of Travis county.

For State Commissioner of Agriculture:

Cliff Day of Hale county.

Kal Sewart of Dallas county.

J. E. McDonald of Ellis county.

George E. Terrell of Cherokee county.

For Associate Justice, Court of Civil Appeals, Tenth Supreme Judicial District of Texas:

James P. Alexander.

Congressman Sixth District:

Luther A. Johnson.

George B. Butler.

Dr. Tom White.

Noble Cook.

James O. Burleson.

Representative 60th District:

R. W. Calvert.

Representative 58th District:

R. R. Owen.

J. R. Donell.

A. N. Justis.

J. J. Kelt.

Joe Edens Anderson.

D. D. Sawyer.

B. A. Crawford.

TUMULTUOUS WELCOME FOR ROOSEVELT IN DALLAS ON FRIDAY

RODE THROUGH THROG OF NEARLY HALF MILLION TO CENTENNIAL GATES

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Staff Writer

DALLAS, June 12.—(P)—President Roosevelt in an informal luncheon address here today said the United States was "world-minded," but its help to foreign nations beset with dangers would be merely "moral."

Praising "national unity," the president said "we have become not only nation-minded but world minded; that is why we are interested in peace."

Saying he was worried about dangers abroad, the president declared he "wants to keep America's feet on the ground" and "extend its policy of friendliness and good will."

He said he wanted to make it clear that "American help would be confined to moral aid in working for settlement of foreign troubles."

By FELIX R. M'KNIGHT
Associated Press Staff Writer

DALLAS, June 12.—(P)—President Roosevelt rode through showers of ticker tape, cowboy yells and khaki-clad national guardsmen here today to the cheers of some 400,000 persons in his first presidential visit to Dallas.

For four miles, from the union terminal to the huge cotton bowl at the Texas Centennial exposition grounds, the streets were lined with shouting, waving persons.

Greeted at the station by his son, Elliott, and Governor Guy Park of Missouri, and Richard Leche of Louisiana, the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, bearing a huge bouquet of red roses, started the long procession with youthful James V. Allred of Texas at their side.

As the President passed the county jail, the inmates pressed against the bars on the four floors and shouted themselves hoarse. A wave of the Presidential hand and his famous smile greeted them.

Great Ovation Yet Received.

Down main street, he rode, ticker tape flooding his open automobile. Those who have accompanied him on his hurried jaunt through Arkansas and Texas, remarked it was the most entrancing ovation he has received.

Ten gallon hats waved, straw hats hurled and typical Texas "Yipes" split the air during the 25-minute procession.

The presidential automobile reached the main gate of the $25,000,000 exposition, where for hours packed thousands had been waiting for a glimpse of the Chief Executive. Texas Rangers, mounted on spirited cow ponies, formed an escort as the President entered the gate and pranced in front of the machine at a rapid pace to the cotton bowl.

Fifty Thousand Hear Speech.

Coatless thousands, some 50,000 of them, fanned with programs and sat under bright colored parasols in the 95-degree heat. The sun was broiling but frequent cheers rippled through the stadium as the President made his 30-minute speech over both national networks.

From the ancient tower of San Miguel De Socorro Mission, reproduced on the exposition grounds, a trio of sweet-toned chimes rang continuously, offering a mellow background for the colorful setting.

Exposition officials estimated 70,000 persons were on the grounds when the President, bareheaded and perspiring freely, started his address.

Frances Nalle, red-haired blue-bonnet girl of the Texas Centennial exposition, presented Mrs. Roosevelt with a huge bouquet of Red Roses immediately after the Presidential speech.

Great Crowds Greet President Thursday

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Staff Writer

ABOARD ROOSEVELT TRAIN EN ROUTE TO DALLAS, June 12.—(P)—President Roosevelt, swinging toward his birthday, arrived in Dallas today to deliver the second major address of his wide swing through the West. Many preliminary receptions at Houston, San Jacinto, San Antonio and Austin.

For Worth, the home of his son Elliott, also was on the itinerary for his second day in Texas.

First at San Jacinto battlefield near Houston, and then at the historic Alamo at San Antonio, the president yesterday praised Texas' heroes who, it is possible, for the Lone Star state to become a republic 100 years ago and then a state under the Stars and Stripes.

Thousands greeted the traveling chief executive. Another great crowd met his train at Austin, the state capital, last night where from the rear platform the president paid tribute to Vice President Garner and for the third time in as many speeches mentioned the value of peace.

At the Alamo, he placed a wreath, also repeated a theme in his Little Rock speech—freedom for the individual against license by special privilege.

He said he hoped the "true men who died" at the Alamo "know that we have not discarded or lost the vitality and the ideals of the pioneer."

"The petition must be denied because under the facts found by the board and shown by the evidence," the court's opinion stated, "the board has no jurisdiction over a labor dispute between employer and employee touching the discharge of laborers in a steel plant who were only engaged in manufacture."

"The constitution does not vest in the federal government the power to regulate the relations as such of employer and employee in production and manufacture."

DEFENSE GRANTED CONTINUANCE IN TRIAL OF PATTON

WIFE OF DEFENDANT UNABLE ATTEND TRIAL WAS PLEA OF ATTORNEYS

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(P)—New support for President Roosevelt came today from Senator Norris, Nebraska's Independent Republican, who calls Gov. Alf M. Landon a man "nobody knows."

Expressing his opinions in a broadcast last night, the veteran senator reiterated his stand behind the president, whom he supported four years ago, and criticized the Republican national convention selection of a presidential candidate.

"These eminent gentlemen behind the smoke screen at Cleveland nominated a man for president who is nobody known," said Norris.

Senator Norris Lends Support To Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(P)—New support for President Roosevelt came today from Senator Norris, Nebraska's Independent Republican, who calls Gov. Alf M. Landon a man "nobody knows."

Expressing his opinions in a broadcast last night, the veteran senator reiterated his stand behind the president, whom he supported four years ago, and criticized the Republican national convention selection of a presidential candidate.

"These eminent gentlemen behind the smoke screen at Cleveland nominated a man for president who is nobody known," said Norris.

Expressing his opinions in a broadcast last night, the veteran senator reiterated his stand behind the president, whom he supported four years ago, and criticized the Republican national convention selection of a presidential candidate.

"These eminent gentlemen behind the smoke screen at Cleveland nominated a man for president who is nobody known," said Norris.

Expressing his opinions in a broadcast last night, the veteran senator reiterated his stand behind the president, whom he supported four years ago, and criticized the Republican national convention selection of a presidential candidate.

"These eminent gentlemen behind the smoke screen at Cleveland nominated a man for president who is nobody known," said Norris.

Expressing his opinions in a broadcast last night, the veteran senator reiterated his stand behind the president, whom he supported four years ago, and criticized the Republican national convention selection of a presidential candidate.

"These eminent gentlemen behind the smoke screen at Cleveland nominated a man for president who is nobody known," said Norris.

Expressing his opinions in a broadcast last night, the veteran senator reiterated his stand behind the president, whom he supported four years ago, and criticized the Republican national convention selection of a presidential candidate.

"These eminent gentlemen behind the smoke screen at Cleveland nominated a man for president who is nobody known," said Norris.

Expressing his opinions in a broadcast last night, the veteran senator reiterated his stand behind the president, whom he supported four years ago, and criticized the Republican national convention selection of a presidential candidate.

"These eminent gentlemen behind the smoke screen at Cleveland nominated a man for president who is nobody known," said Norris.

Expressing his opinions in a broadcast last night, the veteran senator reiterated his stand behind the president, whom he supported four years ago, and criticized the Republican national convention selection of a presidential candidate.

"These eminent gentlemen behind the smoke screen at Cleveland nominated a man for president who is nobody known," said Norris.

Expressing his opinions in a broadcast last night, the veteran senator reiterated his stand behind the president, whom he supported four years ago, and criticized the Republican national